Thesis (Proposal) Oral Defense Auditing Regulations

(106.05.16) Amended and approved in the Eighth Department Meeting of the 2016–2017 academic year

1. The students of the department will be given priority to auditing the thesis (proposal) oral defense of the department graduate student. Please refer to the department announcement “Timetable for Thesis (Proposal) Oral Defense” for the sessions that are open to students from other departments.
2. Auditing students should enter the defense room before the beginning of the oral defense and should not leave the defense room until the end of the oral defense. During the oral defense, auditing students are not allowed to enter or leave the defense room without the permission of the chairman.
3. Auditing students should follow the guidelines for exam venue and are not allowed to speak, chat, make noise, eat or drink, or move around without the permission of the chairman. The phone should be set to silent mode or turned off. Audio recording, video recording, and/or photography is prohibited.
4. Auditing students from other departments should sign the attendance authentication as needed [please refer to the “Timetable for Thesis (Proposal) Oral Defense” of the department for the signing audit session time]. After the oral defense, auditing students must show student ID card to the advisor for the signature of the attendance authentication. In case of any violation of this rule, the advisor reserves the right to sign the attendance authentication depending on the situation.
